Who we are?

Jesuit Service Cambodia (JSC) is an international non-government organization (NGO) run by Jesuit Mission in Cambodia. We have Been working in education, infrastructure development, health, and wheelchair since the beginning. The activities of JSC are divided into the Rural program -Metta Karuna and the Special program. The Special program consists of Banteay Prieb, RDAS program, Ecology program, Ear clinic, Publishing Project, and Light of Mercy Home. JSC seeks to safeguard the rights and the future of the poor. Our desire is to continue to serve the most disadvantaged among the poor. The focus is on activities for genuine community development and empowerment of the Cambodian people.
